GENERAL INFORMATIONS

1.1 ACCEPTANCE

The regulation is available for all runners and pacers, whatever the race chosen.

The fact of participating in the competition assumes the pure and simple acceptance of the present regulation in its entirety. The regulation is available on and as well on the spot the day of the competition.

However it could be changed, the last update will be available on the web site.

Waste sorting bins will take place on all refreshment post and must be used.

You must follow the marked path without taking shortcuts (you'll cause harmful erosion of the path) and don't throw your garbage. Those two actions can justify a disqualification.

1.2 ORGANISATION

The association Echappée Belle organize L'Échappée Belle with the support of Espace Belledonne, the municipalities, the associations of local authorities and departments of Isère and Savoie.

1.3 DESCRIPTION

L'Échappée Belle is a mountain trail running race taking the paths, trails and route of the Belledonne Massif.

This race is difficult because its profile and above all by the high technicality of its trails. You'll run in a wild and mountainous area.

The races:

Race	Distance	D+	Start	Time	Start place	Time limit
Échappée Belle Integrale	150km	11 200 m D+	August 21st Friday, 2026	6h-6h30-7h	Vizille	53 hours
Traversée Nord	96km	7 200 m D+	August 22nd Saturday, 2026	00h01-00h30-01h00	Allevard	35 hours
Parcours des Crêtes	63km	4 770 m D+	August 22nd saturday, 2026	8h-8h30-9h	Allevard	27 hours
Maratrail	42km	2 790 m D+	August 22rd saturday, 2026	9h30-10h-10h30	Valgelon-La Rochette	25h30

The start time will be defined with your heat times. The best ones will start in the first wave time.

The path will be indicated by markers, and for better night vision some section include yellow reflective marker to be easily visible with your head lamp. Netherless a marking is not infallible, it's recommend to have all the time the road-book with you.

RACE INFORMATION

3.1 SEMI-AUTONOMY

Runners are in semi-autonomy. You don't have to rely only on refreshment stop!

The longest run between 2 refreshment post can take 8 hours.

So it's necessary to have throughout the race a food reserve and drink to reach the next refreshment post.

You'll find in Belledonne many sources, torrents and drinkable lakes. For people sensitive to this water of mountains, be reasonable, or used purification tablets.

The refreshment post of La Pra, Jean Collet and Périoule are brought by helicopter before the race, so they're lighter in food and drink than the other post.

Consider the difficulty of the path for your road map. Use the color of the walking table to evaluate the quality of the path.

3.2 PACER

The pacer is an accompanying person. Only solo 152km can have one.

The pacer can join his (her) runner from The Pleynet for the portion of their choice and leave him (her) in the place of their choice. The beginning and the end of the pacer must be on a refreshment post.

The pacer has a race bib and has access to the refreshment post, as well as the finisher food.

There's no ranking for the pacer, but he will receive the registration gift and the finisher prize.

His (her) mission is to follow the runner, to reassure, to support and to help him (her) to pass the finish line. However the pacer is not allow to carry the material, towing or to push his (her) runner.

It's possible to have only one pacer.

Warning : if you want a pacer during the race, he needs to register on his own (limited places).

3.3 SHOWERS AND TOILETS

Showers and toilets will be available:

- In Vizille in the gymnasium (start)
- In Aiguebelle in the gymnasium (finish).

The access to the shower in Aiguebelle are reserved to the runners. The toilets of the refuge are inaccessible except in case of agreement of the person in charge of the post.

3.4 ABANDONMENT AND REPATRIATION

Without any injury, it's possible to stop the race only on the check point. The runner must warn the person in charge of the check point, who definitely invalidates his (her) bib number.

The repatriation will be decided by the person in charge of the post, according to the following regulations:

- Shuttles are available in le Pleynet which is the main area and the best place to stop the race about logistics
- Jean Collet, La Pra, Habert d'Aiguebelle and Fontaine Noire are not the best place to stop because they're difficult to access and need a long walk to reach the shuttles
- Arselle, Gleyzin, Super Collet, and le Bourget en Huile are accessible by car
- Runners who can not join Le Pleynet / Les 7 Laux have to reach any check point and to warn the staff or volunteer, or directly a member of the organization or rescuer if he (she) find some on the track. They'll be repatriated by the organization on the same time of the leaving of the volunteers with the coming of the race sweepers, depending on the enough space in the shuttle
- In case of very bad weather which justified to stop the race, the organization provides the repatriation of the runners in the best delay to be transported to Aiguebelle, Le Pleynet or Vizille

If the race sweepers pass a runner, he (she) will invalidate the bib race, and the runner is no longer under the organization's responsibility.

3.5 CALM AND REST AREA

Some areas are reserved for your rest time. Nevertheless the rest time is timed to allow all runners to take advantage of it and to share with the volunteers. We can not guarantee the availability for everybody.

Name	Maximum rest time	Maximum beds (cot)
Le Pleynet	2 hours	100 beds in the gymnasium
Gleyzin	20 minutes	30 beds in the sheepfold
Super Collet	20 minutes	10 beds under tent
Val Pelouse	20 minutes	10 beds in the chalet
Bourget en Huile	20 minutes	10 beds
Aiguebelle	N/A	100 beds in the gymnasium

Beyond these areas for runners, there are a few shelters and refuges with rudimentary comfort to shelter and/or sleep. These cabins can be occupied, you don't have any priorities because of the race. They're not reserved for the runners, but could be a nice place to rest...

We don't have any agreement with the refuges (except for medical emergency) to accommodate you as they're in high season:

- Jean Collet
- La Pra
- Les 7 Laux,
- L'Oule
- La Pierre du Carré

However we invite you to stop there during your stays in Belledonne. You'll have a good time.

3.6 SPARE BAGS (150KM AND 96KM)

You'll receive a spare bag labeled with your race number. You must leave it on the start area on the morning of the start in Vizille for the 152km and in Fond de France for the 96km.

- For the 152km you'll have access to your spare bag in Fond de France / Les 7 Laux, then in Super Collet and to finish in Aiguebelle.
- For the 96km you'll have access to your spare bag in Super Collet and in Aiguebelle.

Every runner put off the race and wanting to continue the race can make it only having restored his (her) bib number, under his (her) own responsibility and in complete autonomy.

In the case of poor meteorological conditions and/or for reasons of safety, the organization reserves the right to stop the event underway or to modify the time barriers.

4.7 DISQUALIFICATION

Race officials present on the race, in charge of different control and refreshment posts are authorized to uphold regulations and to immediately impose a disqualification for non-respect, based on the following chart:

- Not presenting or refuse to cross the departure lock to activate the electronic chip
- Not respecting the regulation or the chart
- Shortcutting the track
- Throwing away rubbish (voluntary act) by the runner or a member of their team
- Not respecting people (organization or runner)

- Not respecting the regulation about the crossing of the Natura 2000 Area and the Natural Reserve of Luitel
- Not assisting a person in difficulty
- Cheating (using transport, sharing bib number)
- Lacking of the electronic chip
- Not passing through a check point
- Lacking of obligatory material
- Refusing to comply with an order from race controller, race official team, head post, doctor, rescuer
- Refusing an anti-drug control
- Leaving a check point after the time barrier

Any other breach of the regulations will be sanctioned by the race director.

4.8 ANTI-DRUG CONTROL

Any competitor can be submitted to an anti-drug control before, during or at the end of a race. If he (she) refuses or abstains, the runner is treated as if found guilty of taking drugs.

RESCUE AND MEDICAL ASSISTANCE

5.1 MOBILE PHONE NETWORK

The GSM network doesn't work everywhere due to the mountain. However you must have a cellular phone fully charged during the race. Thank to charge it on the base camp of Le Pleyne, to be sure to get enough battery until Aiguebelle.

5.2 RADIO LINK

The organization is committed to deploying a temporary radio relay that allow the rescue team and volunteers to communicate quickly. However we can't guarantee 100% coverage. A dedicated professional company will work to have good radio communication on the mountain.

5.3 RESCUE SYSTEM

The organization provides a complete process to support your safety. Nevertheless no system is 100% valid. We've planned for your safety:

- o Mobile rescue units on posts requiring a particular attention
- o Fixed rescue units on advanced posts on the path allowing the repatriation
- o 1 helicopter dedicated to bring rescuer and to evacuate the slightly injured runner
- o 2 race communication station in Le Pleyne / Les 7 Laux and in Aiguebelle
- o 2 advanced medical posts in Le Pleyne / Les 7 Laux and in Aiguebelle
- o 1 medical team of regulation takes place all along the race in Le Pleyne / Les 7 Laux and in Aiguebelle
- o Volunteer controllers all along the path with manual control
- o A timing system by bar codes with 10-15 check point
- o Few definitive exit in case of abandonment or light injury
- o Various options of back course to have the maximum of chance to join Aiguebelle even in bad weather, without being able to guarantee it

5.4 RESCUE PROCESS

The rescue posts are intended to assist any person in danger with the specific mean to the organization or contracted. It's up to the runner in difficulty or seriously injured, or witness of an accident to contact the rescue number. For this there's several option:

- By presenting to one rescue post
- By phoning the race communication station (the phone number is on the bib race)
- By asking to another runner to alert a rescue post

It's up to each runner to assist any person in danger and to call rescue team.

Don't forget that hazards of all kinds, linked to the environment and the race, can make you wait for the rescue longer than expected. A runner calling a doctor or a rescuer de facto submits to his authority and agrees to accept his decision.

Rescuers on medical advice and doctors are empowered in particular:

- To declare out of race (by invalidating the bib race) any runner not able to continue the race
- To evacuate by any means at their convenience the runners whom they judge to be in danger.

In case of fatigue no longer allowing you to continue:

You have to signal your presence to the race communication station by any means. You can't leave the track without warning the race communication station. Anyone is no longer on the official track race is no longer under the responsibility of the organization. In case of force majeure if you have to shelter, even a few meters from the official track, you must notify it to the race communication station, and materialize your presence on the track by any possible means so that the race sweepers can join you.

5.5 NIGHT ROUTING OR FOG

The race controllers (volunteers on the track) can ask you to stay with a small group if your condition of fatigue imposes it, for any weather condition. So you may be asked to wait for another runner to stay in group.

5.6 PATOUS AND HERDS

The alpine pastures of Belledonne are frequented by herds of sheep guarded by patous. Instructions were given to the shepherds in order to keep the herds away from the race track during the weekend of the event. Nevertheless, if you meet patous, recommendations are simple:

- Stop to run
- Stay up, give it time to identify you
- Don't use your poles to frighten it
- Continue your way slowly and quiet
- Phone the race communication to alert it or tell it directly to a volunteer.

Particular instructions are on the web site about the behavior to be faced with a herd. Respect the work shepherds, slow down to not scare the animals and for your safety.

RESPONSABILITY AND INSURANCE

6.1 CHANGE / CANCELLATION OF THE RACE

The organization reserves the right to modify at any moment the track and the positioning of the rescue and refreshment posts, without warning.

In case of unfavorable weather conditions (important quantities of rain or snow on altitude, strong risk of storms....) the start may be postponed. In case of poor meteorological conditions, and for reasons of safety, the organization reserves the right to stop the event underway or to modify the time barriers.

If the organisation chooses to cancel the race : whatever the reason may be, a possible refund can be offered depending on the expenses already incurred at the date of cancellation by the organisation, this in order to ensure its durability until the next edition.

In case of route/hour or day of departure, no refund will be done.

We remind you that any outdoor event can be subject to many hazards requiring a modification of the original courses, or even its cancellation for the safety of participants, its volunteers and more generally all those involved.

6.2 INSURANCE

6.2.1 CIVIL RESPONSABILITY

The organizer has taken out civil responsibility insurance for the duration of the event with Generali. This civil responsibility insurance guarantees the financial consequences of its responsibility, of that of its officials and of the runners.

6.2.2 INDIVIDUAL ACCIDENT

Participation in L'Échappée Belle as a runner or pacer (in the case of the integral), is subject to each participant taking out a valid individual accident insurance policy covering participation in a trail/ ultra-trail event. trail in the mountains and more precisely the bodily injuries to which participants may be exposed during the event, in the absence of a responsible third party.

This insurance must cover at least:

- the costs of mountain search and rescue;
- the costs of rescue and evacuation, including helicopter transport if necessary;
- care costs following an accident;
- the consequences of a bodily accident that occurred during the event.

This insurance is separate from the civil liability insurance taken out by the organiser. The organizer also invites each participant to subscribe, if he deems it necessary, additional guarantees, in order to benefit from a better compensation in case of accident.

As a reminder, individual accident insurance generally includes coverage for medical expenses, compensation in the event of disability or death, or even coverage for search, rescue, and repatriation costs. It is also recalled that compensation under an "individual accident" is defined on a flat-rate basis, so that the guarantees subscribed to do not necessarily cover the entire loss suffered.

The participant remains entirely free to choose his insurer. It is up to him to verify that the contract he has signed covers the practice of running in competitions, in mountain environments, as well as any limitations regarding activity, altitude, territory, or duration. (Some courses approach an altitude of 3,000 meters)

The organizer may ask any participant, at any time before departure and no later than when collecting the bib, to present a valid proof of insurance. In the absence of proof, or if the guarantees appear clearly insufficient with regard to the requirements of this regulation, the organizer may refuse the delivery of the race bib or the departure. For the sending of bibs by post, the supporting document may also be requested electronically after the bib is sent. In the absence of valid proof, the bib may be invalidated.

Failure to present a valid proof will not give rise to any refund.

For information purposes only, the organizer may provide participants with links on the registration page of the race website to several insurance solutions that could meet these requirements. These indications are communicated without recommendation, without exclusivity and without this dispensing each participant from personally checking the adequacy of the guarantees to his situation.

The organizer thus invites each participant to check with their insurance company (and/or, if they are licensed, with the insurance company of the Federation where they hold this license) if he is covered by an adapted insurance plan capable of being activated in the event of a bodily accident occurring during the event.
